TOWNE TALK

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

They is having a strawberry festival up to Gardena and Cal Alverson says now that the neighboring communities is celebrating various kinds of fruits why don't we start raspberry fete.

They is one thing you don't want to do and that is call Lewis Ripple Louie in front of Mrs. Ripple because I done it when I goes in to collect the monthly bill and she says his name is Lewis and not Louie, and so I says okay Lewis and acted so decent about it that Louie he paid me his bill right on tap as per usual.

Mussolini says the legislature in Italy has got to die a natural death, which will be quite a change in Italy.

I went in to Dolley's one cent sale and bought a two cent stamp and Harry refuses to sell me a second one for one cent. Gee Whiz.

Over to the trustees meeting Monday night they was talking about a garbage collecting matter and pretty soon they got to talking about something else and got way off the subject and Mayor Dennis he says we gotta get back to that garbage and somebody in the audience whispers to his neighbor Aw theyotta can that stuff. No arrests was made.

The world is full of a lot of bozos who last fall said to themselves that they would put the old straw hat away and wear it next year and who now is wondering how it got looking so crushed and seedy in the closet and who is stepping out a buying a new one. The only human being who can keep a thing from one season to another is a woman. No man can't.

This here is a picture of Art Finster who just got back from an asserted fishing trip with Scottie Mackenzie, Pax Paxman, Jens Jensen and John Holmes. Art he got back and the picture was snapped while he was telling J. C. Smith about the one that got away.

The boys drove 700 miles between Friday and Sunday and they had a dandy time, but Pax says he guesses somebody tipped the trout off that they was coming.

On the way back they was a cloudburst and the roads was running with water and Jens he says let's stop and fish.

Well they hit a big mud puddle and the muddy water splashed all over the car and its occupants and Pax says let's get out and swim and Scottie says nix the car is a better swimmer than anybody in it so let's stay with the car.

Take a look at the picture above again. You can see that even the dawg don't believe it.
